Registration: Step 1 of 4

Membership to the Angelo State University Online Community is available to alumni only. In order to access "members-only" areas of this online community, you must first register. Once you've registered, simply enter your User ID and Password when prompted as you browse the community.

First, pull up your record among the list of eligible members by using the search form to the right. When completing the form, only your last name is required, but you may enter additional information to refine your search.

If you are not an alumnus, but are affiliated with this community in some way, email the Community Administrator to inquire about access to the community services.

Find your record

Use the search form below to find your record in the list of eligible members (as designated by your organization).

Last Name: **required

First Name or Initial:

Class Year: *(i.e. 1985)

Already registered? Select a service from the menu bar and enter your User ID and password when prompted or click here if you forgot your User ID or password.

Next select your name from the list of names and class years.

--------------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------------------	----------------------------

Registration: Step 2 of 4

The list to the right represents those records in the "eligible members" database that match your search criteria. Select a name to review more detailed information about a particular record, verify that it is your own, or continue through the registration process.

If you do not see your name in this list of records, you may refine your search criteria by starting a new search. If you are unable to locate yourself on the list even after refining your search, complete this request form which will be sent to the Community Administrator for research and validation.

If you need help, please click here to go to the registration help area.

Select your record
