Topic?

Sustainability at Smith College: How is Smith integrating sustainability in the College's planning and decision-making processes?

Sustainability is meeting the needs of the present without compromising the needs of the future. It is a means of balancing economic, social, and environmental aspects of human society so its members are able to meet their needs and express their greatest potential, while preserving resources for the long term.

Speaker?

Leslie King, member of the Smith College Sustainability Committee and Assistant Professor of Sociology and Environmental Science and Policy.

When?

Sunday, June 11, 2006, 3:00pm - 5:30pm

Where?

44 Laurel Road, Hamden, CT 06517

Host?

Lisa Totman '64
