MLK School June 2010 Update

We had a wonderful 20 year anniversary celebration of our program with the DC Public Schools at our luncheon at the Woman's National Democratic Club on April 29. There were about 200 people present to hear Michelle Rhee, Chancellor of DCPS. She provided an update on developments within DCPS and what she has learned in her position. She repeatedly complimented our partnership and made the point that these sorts of efforts are exactly what are needed to continue improving performance in DCPS. She also devoted much of her time to answering our questions. Our guests included Dr. Valoria Baylor, the principal of MLK, and Romaine Thomas, the retired principal of Ketcham Elementary where our program started in 1989. Check out the Club Website under News to read a history of our project including a list of all 163 volunteers.

As we come to the end of our 21st year, we wish to thank all our current volunteers (listed below) and past volunteers (listed in the History document on the website) for their commitment. We also want to thank all members of the SCCW -- your dues help to support some of the activities we do at MLK such as buying books and providing transportation for field trips. The school -- from the principal to the librarian to the teachers to the students -- appreciate the partnership and support of SCCW and we in turn want to share that appreciation with all of you.

TUTORS: Nancy Simon, Coordinator ; Joan Benesch, Jean Crocker, Sally Cutler, Maria Consuelo Gall, Margaret Greene *, Peggy Greene *, Barbara Harper *, Jill Howell, Linda Kacser, Jane Lescure *, and Linda Matkovic. An asterisk indicates 21 years of service.

Many of these volunteers have also committed to additional time at RIF (Reading is FUNdamental) book distributions and helping at the Book Fair.

We'd also like to thank Hermine Dreyfuss for all the wonderful pictures she has taken at MLK, and Margaret Greene and Sally Cutler for communicating with Michelle Rhee's office to arrange our luncheon.
